

Voices Morgan Hill Grand Opening

Voices Morgan Hill unveiled its new facilities to the public Tuesday, Oct 10th, during its grand opening ceremony! Morgan Hill community leaders and Voices' parents, students and staff gathered to celebrate Voices' new facility, which will provide stability for the school for the next 4 years until it moves into its permanent site. State Assembly Member Anna Caballero from District 30 was in attendance as well as Morgan Hill Mayor Steve Tate, Santa Clara Valley Water District board member John Varela, Santa Clara County Office of Education Board Trustees Joe Di Salvo and Grace Mah, Morgan Hill City Council Member Rene Spring, Morgan Hill Unified School District Board Trustee Mary Patterson, Morgan Hill Chamber of Commerce Executive Director John Horner, and Morgan Hill Planning Commissioner Yvonne Martinez Beltrán.

With Voices Morgan Hill Principal Juan Carlos Villasenor serving as the emcee, the ceremony opened with a welcoming introduction by Voices Morgan Hill second grader Ashley Gonzalez and Voices second and third graders welcome everyone with the In Lak'ech chant.

Grace Mah, SCCBOE; Mary Patterson and Gino Borgioli, MHUSD; Joe Di Salvo, SCCBOE

Voices MH students during the ribbon cutting ceremony.

Following remarks by Voices CEO Frances Teso, Assembly Member Anna Caballero presented Voices with a certification of recognition to commemorate the school's new site and the good work the school is doing in the Morgan Hill community.

Morgan Hill Mayor Steve Tate briefly addressed the audience and congratulated Voices Morgan Hill on its new facility and Morgan Hill Chamber members stood amongst Voices staff and students to cut the ceremonial ribbon.

Voices Parent Leader Maricruz Ruiz delivered a short speech describing the journey she and many other parent leaders and Morgan Hill community members faced to bring Voices to their neighborhood.

Assembly Member Anna Caballero presenting the certification of recognition to Voices students.